

The University of Washington's COVID-19 Vaccination Policy is being updated.

Governor Inslee issued proclamation 21-14.1 requiring all employees of Washington higher education institutions to be fully vaccinated against COVID-19 by October 18, 2021, as a condition of employment unless a UW-documented medical or religious exemption is approved. This applies to all faculty, librarians and other academic personnel and all staff, academic student employees and student employees.

Visit the University's COVID-19 vaccination requirement webpage for more information.
